Subject: WK/111238247 Objection to Licence

Hello

Or should I say Dear Madam or Sir,?

Please withhold my name and address from any reports and published or non-published databases, wherever possible.

I live ~~at~~ the EDA Food centre which is at 504-506 Horsey Road N19 3QW.

And I object to their being awarded a 24 hour booze license.

This area is plagued by street drinkers. They feel the need to be drink at all times and sit at my bus stop drinking from at least 10AM. It makes me retch. Especially if I have a hangover(!) Seriously, these alcoholics need help -not more access to drink. They sit in the park all day, sometimes with their very young children, in the company of other like-minded victims to the demon drink. It is especially sad to see the kids there with them.

There are obvious components to the drinkers' choice of habitat and one of them is the local availability of cheap alcoholics' strength beer and cider. Londis, on the corner of Hornsey Road and Hazelville Road is currently their preferred source for their addiction. Thankfully, Londis choose to close relatively early which may curtail their excess to some minor degree.

If EDA Food Centre sold booze 24 hours, not only would it be to the detriment of the current bunch of alcoholics but it would no doubt be a beacon for street drinkers from further afield. They'd trapse from all sides and soon the already established problem would escalate.

It must have taken huge effort on the council's part to establish the sadly completely non-effective no-drink area (which simply displaces the drinkers to local bus-stop seats), so why do a u-turn and decide to support street-drinking? That's exactly what extending this alcohol licence will do.

I like a drink. I do it in the pub. And I do it at home. And I especially do it at Christmas >hic<. BUT I don't trouble anyone and I have RESPECT both for myself and others. And, crucially, I don't feel the need to have outside access to alcohol at all hours! I don't see that this would benefit anyone in the local community apart from the aforementioned drunkards. And in ther case, the term 'benefit' would be a fallacy.

Regards / Yours faithfully
