Subject: RE: Premises Licence Application: Lolo

I object to this application.

The property is within the Angel Cumulative Impact zone and next door to the Steam Package and 4 doors away from Milly's mini mart, which was refused an off licence because this is an area where there is a problem of preloading of alcohol and street drinking.

Islington has double the national average of licences premises per resident and this means that a huge burden is placed on our local police, the disproportionate costs of which are borne by the residents and non-licensed businesses. I would guess that the greater percentage of those patronising the licensed premises in the Angel are not Islington rate payers, or residents. They therefore bear no element of the cost, nor suffer the noise, vandalism and ASB. There has therefore to be a compelling reason to grant a new licence; and the burden of proof of showing that such a licence will not add to the cumulative impact has to be with the applicant. I do not consider that this applicant has done this.

Looking at this specific application: is for an on and off licence.

The premises were a tea bar, before that a yogurt shop before that a dress shop and before that a phone shop. I do not know if it ever has been licensed but if so it has not been for some years. The premises are small. Indeed the plan shows only 19 covers and those look as if they are stools at benches. The primary use cannot therefore be said to be a restaurant and, indeed, if that were the case planning permission would be required.

Although the application says that the on service of alcohol will only be to customers taking a meal, given the size of the premises and the planning history it would seem unlikely that this would be a large meal. Indeed that application does not use any words to describe the meal. I assume they are intending to sell alcohol to the 19 seated customers who will either be eating paella or having a platter of ham or and cheese. This should be clarified and a condition put in the licence so that any alcohol is served with and is ancillary to a substantial meal. It should not be the main element of the service.

The application for an off licence should be rejected. Once a property has an off licence, that remains with the premises whatever the business and whoever the owner. The element of the business, which related to on site dining could be dropped, as could the delicatessen. The property could become an off licence pure and simple selling spirits, fortified wine, strong beer etc. It may be that the current owner would not do that but a subsequent owner might. This would only add to the problems in this area of the Angel, put a further strain on the emergency services, and cause further disturbance and ASB.

The application should be refused.

Dear Sir,

Once again I write to object to the granting of a premises licence.

This locality is well saturated with alcoholic outlets. The Angel Saturation Policy seems to have been consigned to the dustbin of Council history. The only recourse we locals have, in attempting to stem this endless tide, is to shout loudly “ Enough is enough.” The arguments against further outlets have been rehearsed time and time again.

The Council has to consider the local residents and traders who do not want to see their area turned into some kind of “alcoholic’s paradise”

Please turn down this application.

Regards,
