

Organisation	Contact	Position	Name of Event	Date event	Times	Venue	Ward	Expected Audience	Description of Event	Amount Applied For	Funding (comments)	CFF Funded 2012?	How meets criteria	Recommend YES/NO	Amount Recommended	Total	Part	No
Key Changes	Peter Leigh	General Manager	Key Changes Summer Music Festival	11 July 2013	6pm-10pm	St Luke's Centre	Finsbury		Key Changes Summer Music Festival is a celebration of work produced by participants of the Key Changes music programme for Islington residents affected by mental health problems. showcase talented and inspiring musicians, singers, MCs, DJs and producers performing original material across a diverse range of musical styles, from rap, reggae and rock to folk, gospel, drumbass.	£850	Match funding seek from NHS	Part Fund £700	Aim to promote recovery and encourage progression to new life opportunities for people experiencing depression, anxiety, psychosis, schizophrenia, bi polar and personality disorders.	yes	£850		1
Newington Green Action Group	Jenny Littlehood	Chair	Jazz on the Green	14 July 2013	11am till 5pm	Newington Green	Mildmay	1,000	Festival has run each year since 2004. Working with Newington Green Traders' Association promoting local goods and trade. The emphasis is on quiet relaxation, families playing, dancing generally chatting and having a good neighbourly time. The music is live jazz from a local group. This year we have the Basin Street Brawler.	£700	Need £1,000 in total to run the event - in kind £300.	Part funded £400	May also have introductory jazz music from a local school (TBC). Are keen to involve local youth, and this year as last, and have police cadets acting as stewards, and first aiders.	yes	£500		1
Islington Arts Factory	Francis Angol	Director of Dance	Dance for Life	21 July 2013	10.30am-5.30pm	Islington Arts Factory	Holloway	300	The festival will feature a range of art activities ranging from arts workshops for children, dance workshops for adults, children and the elderly in a variety of cultural expressions from, Urban dance, Ballet, Contemporary dance, Jazz, Hip Hop, street, Brazilian, Flamenco, lindy/Swing and African contemporary and traditional dance. The day will also include an in-door craft market, making it possible for members of the local community to purchase a number of artistic works of art from craft stalls selling paintings, jewellery and various fashion items.	£1,000	LIF Tollington Ward £970 (pledged) Local Businesses are being approached for donations, estimated donations £800	Part fund £500	The festival offers enriching opportunities for learning and skill development led by an assortment of world-class artists, choreographers, teachers and directors that are normally restricted to cash-rich and support-rich arts venues across the UK. All licensing and insurance requirements and particularly has a commitment to Child Protection.	yes	£500		1
Manor Gardens Welfare Trust	Oliver Day	Fundraising and Marketing Officer	Summer Fair and Street Party	27 July 2013	12pm-5pm	Manor Garden Centre and Street	Finsbury park	300-500	The event will feature local celebrities, live music and entertainment (RnB, folk, Pearly Kings and Queens), farm animals from freightliners farm, free smoothies and both local charities and local businesses. We will also be unveiling our new Islington People's Choice plaque in dedication to our founder, Florence Keen, as well as opening our new Community Health Learning Centre. The aim is to encourage all ages and sections of the community to attend the event. Food will be provided by community groups, including BBQ by Friends of the Peel and Federation of Iraqi Refugees, Link Ethiopia and Asian Women's Lone Parent's Association. Stalls will include such activities as bouncy castle, face painting, second hand books, tombola, raffle, massage, garden plant sales, traditional games etc.	£1,000	estimated £500	Part funded £400	Plan to work with Community Diner to provide catering, along with the 25 organisations based at the Centre to run information stalls. Working in the Mental Wellbeing Projects. It also aims to signpost to other charities, including the Toy Library, and provide information on their own projects, including the Stroke Project, Health Advocacy (advocating for the health of Black, Minority ethnic and refugee communities), Mental Wellbeing and the Friendship Phone Network, so that disadvantaged groups effected by such inequalities may gain from the day.	Yes	£1,000		1
Peel Institute	Rob Hamilton	Chief Executive	Peel Community Hub Summer Festival	10 August 2013	TBC	Peel Centre Circus	Finsbury	250		£500	Match funded by the organisation, food sales and raffle	Part funded £300	Improving community cohesion and civic pride, reducing inequalities, celebrate diversity. Volunteer opportunities. Enhancing well being and improve health of the local community.	yes	£350		1
New River Baptist Church	Daniel Watson	Member responsible for organising fun day	Canonbury Fun Day	14 September 2013	11am-2pm	The Bridge, 80 Arran Walk, N1	Canonbury	Not specified	Stalls, some of which would be providing information (i.e. local groups and services such as recycling, benefits advice, anti-social behaviour, healthy eating etc.) whilst others would involve activities and games. Other items would include a bouncy castle and a subsidised food stall. Live music and free massages.	£750	Applications for support will be made to a range of organisations and local businesses. Previously have received both financial and 'in kind' support from Sainsbury's, Help the Aged and Well London.	Part funded £400	Local community to come together, to meet other people and to have fun with a view to creating community cohesion and a sense of pride for their area. Event has run successfully for 3 consecutive years. The Bride is a very deprived area. 1) with current food hygiene certificates; 2) A trained first aider will be present at all times; 3) health and safety risk assessment will be undertaken for each of the proposed activities.	yes	£500		1
Archway Town Centre Group	Stephanie Smith	Secretary	Archway with Words	21 September 2013	11am-9pm	Archway Island, Methodist Church and Business	Hillrise	2,000	This application is specifically to support and all-day festival on Archway Island at the outset of the longer festival, providing free activities and entertainment.	£6,000	budget from the Archway Town Centre Group	No	Archway is identified as an area of high disadvantage, and the work of the Town Centre Group in partnership with Islington always seeks to rectify that. All activities will be served by environmentally friendly practices. AWWW will be delivered by partners ATCG, Friends Of Archway Market, Rowan Arts, Talking News Islington and individual businesses	Yes	£1,000		1
Cubitt	Daniel Baker	Education Director	TBC	15-21 July	TBC	Cubitt Gallery and studios	St Mary's	500	The festival will revolve around a major exhibition of artwork created by local seniors (over-60's) in Cubitt's internationally recognised gallery. The exhibition will provide a unique forum for older local people, particularly from low income backgrounds, to show their work amongst peers in a public setting.	£1,000	Matching funding from Baring Foundation and ACE	Part funded £800	A series of free, public events that enable participants to gain skills, work with high quality visual arts practitioners and find expression through the arts. The ethos of the festival will promote self-directed learning, independence, and equality of access to opportunity. The festival will be delivered in partnership with our network 4 community centres and older people's providers, in particular: St. Luke's Community Centre; The Peel Centre; Claremont Project; the Girdlestone Community Centre; Age UK Islington; the Stuart Low Trust; and Help on Your Doorstep.	Yes	£1,000		1
Islington Exhibits Consortium (Cubitt, Islington Arts Factory, Octopus, St Luke's Centre, Whittington Park Community Association), led by Rowan Arts	Tanya Harris	IE Co-ordinator	Islington Exhibits	15-31 July 2013	various	various	Finsbury Park	10,000	Islington Exhibits is a unique annual platform for established and emerging artists to curate their own exhibitions in spaces across the borough, or publicly open their studios. It also provides a number of funded awards and residencies each year for Islington based artists. Artists who are involved in the general programme are given advice and support from Rowan Arts staff and volunteers, and the artists now form a growing network of practitioners keen to engage with local audiences and engage with the new exhibition spaces in the borough. Islington Arts Factory is a central platform	£1,000	Cripplegate	Yes	In 2013 we estimate IE will benefit: - 50 established/emerging artists (plus the Summer Salon) - 40 organisations/exhibition venues (depending on group/solo shows) - 9,000 exhibition-visitors and 1,000 audience-members or activity-participants (the public) - Continued cultivation/development of visual arts in Islington and a strengthened network - 24 individuals with experience of mental health issue benefitting from placements	Yes	£1,000		1
Rowan Arts	Ruth Robinson	Director	Holloway Arts Festival	1-8 June 2013	Various	London Met, WPCA, Horatia Pub, North Library etc	Finsbury Park and Holloway	4,000	The eleventh Holloway Arts Festival will take place 1-8 June 2013, with many of the events being free. With the newly formed Planning Group we have developed a strong theme - 'Escape to Holloway' - the idea is of having a 'staycation', with the feel of a typically eccentric British seaside within the London inner city. A key new development for Holloway Arts Festival 2013 is Owning the Arts, a one-day conference for anyone who is interested in the question 'Are the Arts for Everyone?' This day is aimed at a wide range of artists, community activists, arts managers, producers and educators.	£1,000		Yes £1,000	maximise access to and participation in arts activities - reduce inequalities in Islington - enhance and improve the quality of life and wellbeing of Islington's residents - develop skills and learning opportunities for young people - improve community cohesion and civic pride - celebrate Islington's diversity - improve, animate and interpret the physical environment - celebrate and interpret the distinctive characters of local areas	yes	£1,000		1
LoNyLa (LoNyLa.com)	J Dakota Powel	Producing Artistic Director	TimeWave (timewave festival.com)	22-26 May 2013	22-25 May (19.30-21.30); and 26 May (12:00-14:00)	Innovation Warehouse	City of London	500	New international festival using telepresence technology to stream remote artists into a live event, enable actors in different cities to interact in the same play and engage audiences as creators. About 150-200 artists will participate.	£500	Income by ticket sales (£10/ticket) + contribution by producer (£4,800).	No	NOT ISLINGTON BASED (City of London)	No	£0			1
Little Angel Theatre	Lynette Shanbury	General Manager	SUSPENSE London puppetry festival	25 Oct to 3 Nov 2013	various	Little Angel Theatre, Rosemary Branch, Kings Head Theatre, Pleasance and 7 other London venues	St Mary's	6,470	The festival takes place in 11 venues across London and involves over 25 companies. It is produced by Little Angele, which is the geographical focus of the activity. It places Islington at the centre of a high profile, highly acclaimed cultural event. As well as theatre performances they will have a series of professional master classes, networking events and puppetry workshops.	£1,000	+ £18k from ACE	Yes £1,000	Puppets for all' subsidised Ticket and Participation scheme, for those at social and economic disadvantage. This includes free places in Youth theatre and Saturday Clubs. Working with over 30 local community organisations on regular basis. Over 20 volunteers assist with the organisation. Working with other cultural venues such as Pleasance Theatre and Rosemary Branch.	yes	£800		1

St Mary's Church	Jules Cassidy	Festival Director	Soul in the City (Upper Street)	29 May- 3 June	Wed and Thur 29-30 10am-6pm; fir 31 10am-9.30pm; Sat 1 11am-5pm; Sun 2 2pm-5.30pm; Mon 3 7pm-10.30pm	St Mary Upper Street forecourt and/or church (Wed/Sunday) and gardens (Sat only)	St Mary's	Numbers not specified	Free neighbourhood festival hosted by St Mary's upper street since Jan 2011. programme includes drama in collaboration with Almeida theatre; fitness and football for young people; all styles of contemporary dance; creative workshops for teenagers and under 12.	Festival costs up to £10K match funding from LIOB £1,000 and St Mary's Church	Yes	Community Cohesion with particular focus in youth. First year was the first year St Mary hosted the festival with over 3,000 attending. Involved: Almeida, Arsenal, Kings Head Theatre, Girl guides, Little Angel and Music first.	Yes	£700	1
Kings Cross Church	Andy Kitchen	Assistant Leader	Soul in the City Bemerton 2013	30th May – 1st June 2013	TBC	Bingfield Park, Bemerton Estate	Caledonian	500	Soul in the City aims to bring together the community of Bemerton Villages to make a contribution to community cohesion. This year's event will build upon the success of the 2012, including practical projects for volunteers to help out with (decorating homes of older people, gardening, litter picking, graffiti removal) to improve the physical environment. There will also be family events on Bingfield Park including a bouncy castle, Panna Cage football, a free BBQ and fete. As part of this there will be arts and crafts workshops and activities for smaller children.	Do not intend to charge for the events, Instead the partner churches will underwrite the balance after £1,000 sponsorship / grants	Part funded £500	The programme of Soul in the City Bemerton specifically targets younger people. Partnering with XLP and other youth providers we intend to support the work which already goes on the Bemerton estate.	yes	£700	1
Caxton House Community Centre	Sue Collins	Book-keeper	Hillrise Community Hubs Festival	Friday 2 August 2013	12pm-4pm	Caxton House Community Centre	Hillrise	200	Festival for local residents and groups organised in partnership with sister hub Hornsey Lane Estate Community Association.. In the large main hall will have activities and stalls, including arts and crafts (e.g. card making, glass and tile decorating), nature themed activities (making bird feeders and seeing seeds) and children's stalls (soft play area, biscuit decorating and face painting). Also bingo and dancing open to all. BBQ and home made food. Computer sessions in the IT suite.	Match income £330 from £987 donations	Part fund £300	Community cohesion: dance and sport activities will allow young and old to join in -improving quality of life and wellbeing. IT tester session to encourage learning. Nature activities to promote awareness of environmental issues. Working in partnership with Hornsey Lane. All areas wheel chair accessible	Yes	£600	1
Reel Islington	Jamie Bamber	Treasurer	Reel Islington Film Festival 2014	Friday 21 –Sunday 24 February 2014	daytime and evening events on all three days	Old Fire Station, N7 6QT (plus at least two other Islington venues tbc)	Finsbury Park	600 over the course of the festival	A) Film in a Day – This free workshop will be targeted at young people and unemployed adults in Islington B) Short Film Awards – A competition open to all, with 2 categories – Schools/Under 18s and Adults. C) Meet the Professionals – A series of workshops designed to provide local people with the chance to meet film industry professionals in an informal environment for information and advice about working or getting started in the industry. D) Talks and Q&A's led by industry professionals. Festival will celebrate local Islington arts and history through creative workshops and performances.	Portion of Awards for All £1,000 grant (unsecured)	part funded £600	- Grow and maximise access to, and participation, film making and film industry activities – both in the lead up to the event and during the 3-day event. - Enhance and improve the quality of life and wellbeing of Islington's residents.	yes	£750	1
Claremont Project	Nessa Finnegan	Special Projects Manager	Claremont Summer Arts Festival	Friday 29th July 2013	2pm-4pm	Claremont Project	Barnsbury	100	They will have 6 arts and heritage workshops, with capacity of 15 people each. Four of the workshops will be facilitated by partner organisations in the borough. Two of the workshops will be facilitated by their own members.	Total £1,034 - additional £534 by Claremont £500 Programme Funding	Yes £500	The festival will be particularly targeted at Islington's most disadvantaged communities (over 50% of 600 regular service users receive means tested benefits). The festival will be free of charge, enabling them to target some of Islington's most disadvantaged residents.	Yes	£500	1
Holloway Neighbourhood Group	Lucy Bingham	Chief Executive	Mayton Street Festival	Sat 1 June 2013	1pm-5pm	On Mayton Street and in the Old Fire Station	Finsbury Park	1,200	A seaside-themed street party with bands, artist workshops, performances, a pop up tea party and stalls (detailed programme is attached). They will work with Rowan Arts to produce this event. The highlight is the music stage programmed with Continental Drifts as part of the Arts Council funded Global Local scheme. - Bake Off – cake making competition (sponsored by Waitrose) - Live music from Continental Drifts (part of Global Local scheme) - Stalls from local craft persons and from those providing services and information to residents of the local area - Art workshops for different ages - Pop Up tea party stall, run with the Women's Institute - Specially devised, interactive performances and carnival to link in with the tea party - Working fire engine	expected LIF funding of £1,000 2000	Part Fund £500	Follows the old tradition of a street festival in the heart of the Nag's Head centre in Holloway. Part of Holloway Arts Festival-In 2013 the Finsbury Park Ward Partnership will run one of their two annual public events at the street party, with the Festival providing an opportunity to measure public opinion, gauging local priorities and encouraging residents to engage in local activities.	yes	£750	1
St Luke's Parochial Trust	Keren Wiltshire	Director of Services	White Cross Street Party	Sat 20 and Sun 21 July 2013	12pm-6pm	Whitecross Street, neighbouring roads and Fortune Street Park	Finsbury	70,000	Spectacular street party along Whitecross Street and in Fortune Street Park celebrating art and inclusivity. Will involve 40 leading artists and again use the street as a giant canvas. The artwork will be exhibited for 2 weeks before the event and up to 6 weeks after. During the 2 days of the street party we will include live art workshops, live music and live painting demonstrations. A food and crafts market will also be incorporated along with community group information stalls.	total of £72K festival- LIF £20k and ACE £28 among £1,000 other funders	Yes £1000	Working up to the event, it will engage with hundreds of people in the local community from schools and community groups to create art for display during the event. It will be collaborating with many Islington groups who will enhance the entertainment programme including Spectrum, Key Changes, Aquaterra, LSO St Luke's, Sadler's Wells and Toffee Park Youth Club. A dedicated website will be created along with flyers and posters and a social networking campaign to promote the event to the widest possible audience	yes	£1,000	1
Yaram Arts	Malik Jeng	Director/Programme Manager	Mildmay	Sun 25 Aug 2013	3pm- 9pm	Newington Green Park	Mildmay	1,000	The event is a presentation of medieval Gambia/West African masquerade for Londoners and SeneGambian UK residents in particular. It will be an outdoor family day event and there will be food stalls selling different African-Caribbean and other cuisines. There will be Face Painting and Bouncy Castle specifically to enhance the entertainment for young children.	Match funding from own organisation and private sponsorship/donations up to £12K (includes LIF grant £1,000 £3,000)	Yes £1,000	A day out with family and friends to enjoy fine arts goes a long way in reducing stress and by extension the health of the people. The event is FREE and open to all and sundry for participation.. Celebrating African arts in a melting cultural hub like Islington will foster good community relations and greater understanding amongst the residents.	Yes	£500	1
Angel Canal Festival		Treasurer and Co-organiser	The Angel Canal Festival	Sunday 1 Sep 2013	11am-5pm	City Road Basin N1	St Peter's	8,000	One day free family orientated community festival to celebrate the canal environment. Extensive programme of free, acoustic entertainment for all ages: children's funfairs, bouncy castle, storytelling, arts sport and educational activities. Hawks and owls and have-a-go pottery. Crafts, arts and charity stalls. 8-10 caterers in Graham Street. Toilets, ambulance and first aid.	£4,500 from stalls and caterers - £12,000 from £1,000 donations and grants	Yes £1,000	The festival has run for 26 years and continues to thrive. Offer a good range of volunteering opportunities and support to volunteers with training a development. Celebrating diversity. To enhance appreciation and use of the inter-city canal environment. Community cohesion and family participation.	Yes	£1,000	1
BVMO/Team Cally	Mohamed Hammoudan	Neighbourhood Co-ordinator	Cally Festival 2013	Sunday 8 Sep 2013	12pm-6pm	Caledonian Road (Offord Road to Bingfield Street and the headers of side streets)	Caledonian	6,000	The Cally Festival is an annual community-led, street-based festival in order to increase the profile of the area, develop confidence in the community, promote cultural richness and diversity of the community, as well as to attract and encourage new businesses to the neighbourhood.	expected £10K match funding from ACE and £40K from various other £1,000 funders including LIF	Yes 1,000	Festival will help the community to have a greater sense of identity with their own environment and their neighbours through publicising the area and marketing it. A key aim of the Festival is to engage with more local traders with the objective of strengthening the newly implemented traders' association for the Caledonian area. The festival organisers have liaised with Islington Public Protection Division to address the requirements of the license along with all health and safety requirements. Working with a wide range of partners	Yes	£1,000	1
TOTAL ALL APPLICATIONS									£19,787				£16,000	10	11	1