Dear sir/madem

I am [REDACTED] writing from
[REDACTED]

I am writing to strongly object to the application for a new premises licence at Vins, 93 Grosvenor Avenue, Islington, N5 2NL.

This application is completely inappropriate in this location.

87 to 95 Grosvenor Ave is

Firstly a residential location with 4 flats in each property including at basement level below shop level, this application would create additional problems of noise and nuisance would late night drinking and out and unwelcome activity on the street scene.

Grosvenor Avenue is well served by the existing public house the snooty fox there is no need for an additional one in this vicinity.

This application would create a focal point for late night drinkers which would encourage crime and disorder.

It will be a public nuisance late night drinking create disturbances and additional noise and commotion in a very dense residential parade, wait outside drinkers blocking the pavement as well as having a risk of under age drinking.

The sale of alcohol off the premises is already well served by the off-licences at 89 and 95 Grosvenor Avenue, no additional benefit would be had to the public by this application. The premises are completely unsuitable for this application since it is very small and completely unsuitable.

I am doubtful whether they could provide disabled toilet to comply with DDA legislation?

I therefore strongly object to this application and I urge the council to refuse planning permission for this use for the reasons I have indicated here

Thank you

Dear Sir,

I am writing to object to the Premises License application at the above address.

I live at [REDACTED], this application would create much noise And unwanted disturbances in a primary residential area.

This parade is firstly residential parade with 4 Flats at each of the property number 87 to 95 Grosvenor Avenue.

This application is completely inappropriate and out of character for this location it would impede on the quality of the residents quiet enjoyment of their property.

This location is already well served by the public house across the road , The snooty fox and I can see no valid justification for islington council to grant a further license which would be at The cost of quality-of-life for the residents in this location.

I therefore strongly object to this application and urge the council to refuse a premises licence for VINS 93 Grosvenor Avenue N5 2NL Your sincerely [REDACTED]
