NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

I object to this application.

In this section of Islington High Street there are already 5 licenced premises of which Fredericks has significant licenced area. In addition there is the York the other side of Duncan Street.

The applicant offers no conditions. The application merely states a business plan but this could change and unless conditions are added an occupier of the premises would be able to operate a full off licence and a full in house bar.

It is for the Council to decide whether their "saturation policy" fits with issuing licence which would tip the balance to have more licenced than non- licenced premises. If it decided to grant the licence the following conditions should be imposed

- 1 The licence granted is limited to Californian and Oregon wines
- 2 No wine to be sold by the glass, the carafe or in open containers
- 3 Wine tasting session to be limited to 2-3 a month and to be limited to 30 people
- 4 Wine tastings only to be pre purchased ticketed events
- 5 No wines to be tasted other than during the wine tasting events

I am not clear whether the applicant intends to offer a sample of a limited number of wines during the day but this could turn into an informal wine tasting even hence condition 5 .Given the price of the wine to be sold I would doubt that the business will support a number open bottles to taste during the day.

This follows the stated business plan and if the applicant wishes to expand the alcohol to be sold a variation can be applied for and the effect of granting such a variation considered at the time.This would also follow the Council's policy in the cases of Le Coq Epicier and Katsute which are also in this section of Islington High Street

Dear Sir/Madam,

I write to object to the granting of the premises licence to the above named applicant.

Seven years ago a similar application submitted by Appestat was turned down in the face of virulent opposition from residents and businesses alike. Nothing has changed and to grant this application now would be flying in the face of precedent. To refresh your memory as to how strong the opposition to Appestat's application was at the time I append the text of one of the letters of objection. The grounds cited have equal validity today and I reiterate them.

Yours faithfully,

Further to the application above, I strongly object on the following grounds:

1. It breaches the council's Saturation Zone Policy which is in force at the Angel.
2. Permitting another licenced premises – (on and off- licence) in an already saturated area, will increase levels of ASB, noise and other unpleasant consequences of excess alcohol consumption in the public realm.
3. In addition, this property was previously a travel agent and prior to that a book shop and with specific reference to Camden Passage, there are further concerns relating to policy on the number of A3 units permitted.
4. Finally, licensing this premises is contrary to the Council's own commitment to the well being and health of its residents and those who work and visit the Borough, vis-a-viz alcohol consumption, as laid out in their polices where they seek to limit the impact of alcohol.

On ALL these accounts, this application should be rejected.

Rep 3

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to object in the strongest terms to yet another licence application to sell and serve solely wine on and off the premises in Islington High Street Camden Passage.

I live at

I and my family

should be entitled to quiet enjoyment at least and not have to endure all the unpleasant side effects that go hand in hand with yet another bar serving wine and holding free wine tasting events during the evenings. (up to 30 participants at any one time!)

These applications come one after another in an already Saturated Zone Area.

The council should acknowledge the well being and health of its residents and recognise that all these licensed premises contribute to alcohol related abuses.

Yours faithfully,

Proposal for full alcohol licence from Pacific Wines, 102
Islington High Street N1

Dear Sir

I am writing to oppose the granting of an alcohol premises licence which has been applied for by Pacific Wines at 102 High Street adjoining Camden Passage, for the following reasons.

1) The area is already saturated with licensed premises, and is situated in a designated Saturation or Cumulative Impact Area meaning that there are already numerous drinking establishments in the neighbourhood.

In particular, there are already 10 licensed premises in the few hundred yards between The York and the Camden Head, including the two public houses, as well as all the licensed premises on the other side of Islington High Street / Upper Street.

2) Increasing the number of licensed premises in an already saturated area will also increase the amount of anti-social behaviour and noise generated from them, despite the best intentions of the premises' owners, to the detriment of the residents who have to share the area with them.

The views of residents opposing the increase in licensed premises have been made plain at numerous Licensing Committee hearings but licences have nevertheless almost always been granted in the Islington High Street/Camden Passage area. This means that the views of residents are being largely ignored, a situation worsened by the new planning rules facilitating changes of use from retail to restaurant or bar use without any prior local consultation.

I advanced exactly these arguments 7 years ago in October 2014 when the Licensing Committee decided to refuse a Licence to the Appestat cafe, a previous occupant at 102 Islington High Street.

Re: Proposal by Pacific Wines

These arguments remain valid today in relation to the present application.

The application has not provided any justification for the Council to depart from its policy of refusing an off-licence except in special circumstances. As described here, periodic wine tastings are not sufficient to justify a full-scale off-licence.

Also the assumption that 90% of sales would be for the expensive wines leaving 10% of sales for cheaper alcohol, would leave the door open for the cheaper sales to dominate, invalidating the whole basis for such a business.

A further point is that the context for consideration of the application is the recent statement by the Local Government Association that alcohol related hospital admissions should be taken into account when new licences are considered, meaning that councils could judge if such licences 'exacerbate an existing public health issue', as alcohol - related harm costs NHS England about £3.5 billion a year.
