Recordable decision taken by the Curtis Ashton, Director of Young Islington

Decision to Award Manor Gardens Welfare Trust a contract to deliver Universal Youth Work Offer for Young People 13+ in the North of Islington

Date of decision	20.03.24
Description of decision taken	Decision to award Manor Gardens Welfare Trust a contract of 39 months (with two extension periods of up to 12 months each) to deliver universal youth work to young people aged 13+ in the north of Islington through two weekly sessions delivered from Andover Community Centre and Collective Acting Studio (Basement Studio).
Reasons for decision	Manor Gardens submitted a quotation that demonstrated a strong inclusive offer to young people in the north that will develop their skills and experiences in safe settings. They have robust relationships developed with young people in the area, a staff team who have developed high trust and respect and strong partnerships with community partners. There was a strong social value offer through wider services delivered by the Manor Gardens Welfare trust, including advocacy and food bank access.
